DETAILED ACTION

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

2. Claims 1-5 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Diggs U.S. Patent 4,078,771. Diggs shows all of the claimed subject matter of a controllable fence in Figures 1-7.

Regarding claim 1, a controllable moving fence system 10 for handling livestock and for controlling the consuming of pasture during the feeding of livestock, the system comprising: boundary fence 1 defining and least one controllable moving fence extending between opposite sides boundary fence, moving fence 3 dividing and separating the into least one first portion one side the moving fence, containing the livestock, and least one second portion another opposite side of moving fence, conserving the pasture, whereby the moving fence controllably moves increase area first portion and to decrease the area of the second lot portion.

Regarding claim 2, wherein at least the moving fence comprises an electric wire

Regarding claim 3, driving means 12 for moving the moving fence.

Regarding claim 4, wherein the at least one moving fence has two opposite ends 8 with each end connected to one corresponding side of the opposite sides of the boundary fence and capable of moving along the corresponding opposite side of the boundary fence.

Regarding claim 5, wherein each end moving fence 8 connected moving carrier moves along one the corresponding opposite sides of the boundary fence, the carrier being connected the driving means 12 for moving the carrier along least one side wire each of the opposite sides the boundary fence.

Allowable Subject Matter

3. Claims 6-19 are objected to as being dependent upon a rejected base claim, but would be allowable if rewritten in independent form including all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Conclusion

4. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Standing U.S. Patent 4,407,485, Angello U.S. Patent 3,482,820, and Blazek U.S. Patent 5,355,834 show similar inventions.
